I. EXOTIC BAROQUE

Saturday, February 11 • 7:30pm

California Koto Ensemble; Bach on Bars (marimba ensemble), Santa Cruz Guitar Orchestra

Our opening event features some of the best-known baroque works delightfully interpreted by a set of unexpected ensembles. Virtuoso Shoko Hikage leads the California Koto Ensemble in Vivaldi's The Four Seasons (1723). The sounds of the koto, a traditional Asian zither instrument, are nicely balanced by William Winant's Bach on Bars marimba ensemble. Finally we feature Mesut Özgen's Santa Cruz Guitar Orchestra playing J.S. Bach favorites. Special Event: Artist Reception (donors & subscribers). Location: UCSC Music Recital Hall.*

Saturday, March 10 • 7:30pm

Mike Marshall & Caterina Lichtenberg (mandolins)

The much-celebrated royal couple of the mandolin world explores the evolution of the mandolin from its Italian baroque roots to its diverse expressions in the dance and popular musics of many nations today. Also featured on the program are the complete Bach Inventions as well as sonatas by Bach and Leclair. Special Event: Youth Competition awards. Location: UCSC Music Recital Hall.*

III. GILDED LILIES

Saturday, March 31 • 7:30pm

Ariose (directed by Michael McGushin), Vlada Moran (organ), Sheila Willey (soprano)

Medieval, renaissance and baroque choral masterworks in their pristine glory, and as they were intriguingly recast by later generations of composers. Follow familiar heirlooms as they transform into sensitive and sophisticated new works. Revel with romantics such as Mendelssohn, Schumann and Brahms and their settings of organ works by J.S. Bach, including Charles Gounod's beloved 'Ave Maria'. Location: Holy Cross Church.
